// User coin withdraw handling

// Category on news addition

Main Program

1 : Site Launch with login screen

2: If event is login,

3:        Check User credentials - Username & Password

4:        If success,

5:               Show events - news reports (& Block requests), existing offer recheck, reports, Add news, Add Offer, Add Shop, Add review

6:               If event is news report/block

7:                      Retrieve news from server db

8:                      check reliabilty of selected news

                       if not reliable

                               delete the selected news

                       end if

9:               end if

                 If event is existing offer recheck

7:                      Retrieve offers from server db

8:                      check selected offer information update server db db if needed

9:               end if

10:              if event is Reports

                        Generate appropriate report - Today/Weekly/Monthly/Yearly/Location wise/Shop wise/user wise Reports

11:              end if

```
12:            if event is Add news/Offer/Shop

13:                    Receive inputs

14:                    Validate inputs

15:                    If Validation success

16:                            Insert to Server db

17:                    else

18:                            Error messages

19:                    end if

20:            end if

21:            if event is Add review

22:                    Retrieve shop list from server db

23:                    Select Shop

24:                    Receive inputs

25:                    Validate inputs

26:                    If Validation success

27:                            Insert to Server db

28:                    else

29:                            Error messages

30:                    end if

31:            end if

32:      else

33:            Generate appropriate error message

34:      end if

35: end if
```